

Digital Ear (U.S.A):

“His talent to mix styles into a unique sound shows off his talent and uniqueness as a whole”

El Metro (Ecuador):

"... is an internationally renowned composer who has made important contributions to numerous critically acclaimed albums, plays and commercial campaigns."

El Tiempo (Colombia):

"With only 24 years old, Felipe Barón has already traveled an important path in the music scene. His love for sounds and early vocation, took him to the scene since he was 10 years old, where he has had a deep approach to jazz and classical music, without neglecting his love for Colombian music and its exponents ... "

La República (Colombia):

"His work has been seen in some of the main art galleries and concert halls in the United States, including the Lincoln Center in New York City ... performed at the Manhattan School of Music and directed by Bobby Sanabria. Also, his pieces have been played at the Berklee Performance Center in Boston, Massachusetts on several occasions. "

La Voz Del Derecho (Colombia):

"... he works on other projects as an artist, guitarist, composer and producer seeking the innovation of Latin music abroad, its adaptation and the attempt to give it a contemporary facet."